

Endorsement Quotes:

“State Representative Paul Wieland has been an effective leader because he puts the interest of his constituents above party politics. That is why I am proud to endorse Representative Wieland for State Senate in the 22nd Senatorial District.” Bruce Valle, State Committeeman 3rd Senate District.

“Paul has been a voice of reason and firm in his values as our State Representative, and I know he will bring those same qualities to the Missouri Senate. “ Steve Farmer Public Administrator

“Paul has been a strong, dedicated servant of his constituents in the House and I know he will be the same in the Senate.” Debbie Dunnegan-Walters, Recorder of Deeds

“When most of think of American politics we have negative thoughts of government intrusion, high taxes, and crooked politicians and although those things do exist, they are not true for all who are elected. Paul Wieland is one such honorable person. He comes from a family who dedicates themselves to sacrifice for others and he has learned his heritage well. Paul has worked hard, long hours doing for the citizens of Missouri and asking nothing for himself; earning small pay, long hours and days away from his family.

I am happy to endorse the Honorable Paul Wieland for Missouri State Senate; if we want good government, we must select good people. Paul is Good People.” David W. Broach, former State Representative.

“I am currently President of the Fox C-6 School Board. I know Paul has worked hard to coordinate with educators to improve our education system in Missouri. Paul listens to his constituents and is never afraid to make tough decisions, even when that means he is not in agreement with his own party. He continually makes the right choices for the people he represents. Paul is a man of integrity, and I proudly support him for the Missouri State Senate.”--Dan E. Smith

“Paul is always there when you need him!” -Sharon Groetke
